master suite. Greg added a six-sided tray ceiling and crown molding to accentuate the shape of the room. "We added rope lighting in a tray for soft light," says Amy. The couple can cozy up in this haven of checkered walls and carpet as well as deep blue draperies and coppery-colored accents, both of crushed silk.

Amy's favorite room is the last room in the right wing of the home — the master bath. With a double sink and mirror vanity on the right and a powder table for Amy on the left, the Garmans don't have to trip over each other in the morning.

Amy can't say enough good things about the sunken Jacuzzi tub with shiatsu massage. "The boys will even use it after a hard practice," she says.
